

Press Release: Catch the Sun Davis!

Monday May 16, 2016
Davis, CA

Cool Davis in partnership with the City of Davis, and our sponsors and partners -- Solar Roof Dynamics, RePower Yolo, and others will be hosting a screening of the recently released solar documentary "Catching the Sun," Sunday, June 5, 2016, at the Veterans Memorial Theater in Davis. The screening will start at 3:00pm and conclude at around 4:30pm followed by a panel discussion until about 5:00pm. Panelists will include Mitch Sears, City of Davis Sustainability Manager, Aaron Nitzkin of Solar Roof Dynamics, and Chris Granger, Executive Director of Cool Davis. The panel will speak about the current adoption rate of solar in Davis and how to help Davis become a net-zero community by 2050.

Before, during, and after the screening there will be a solar fair outside the theater. The fair will begin at 1:30pm and close at 5:30pm. The fair will consist of approximately 10 exhibitors who will be providing attendees with information regarding rooftop solar including how to choose a contractor, financing tips, and overall home energy efficiency tips.

The solar fair will be a family friendly event! Several solar related organizations will provide interactive and educational exhibits for children and their families. Among these activities will be solar toys that can be built and taken home.

The screening will be free to the public and you can reserve a seat on eventbrite:
