

City of Davis
Earth Day Proclamation
April 22, 2021

- Earth Day is celebrated annually to celebrate the beauty of our planet, recommit to actions to promote a healthy environment, and to maintain a peaceful, just and sustainable world
- Davis prioritizes environmental justice, equity and inclusion in developing the 2020 Climate Action and Adaptation Plan (CAAP) Update
- Celebrating Earth Day 2021, City of Davis will hold the first CAAP Workshop at 6:30 PM on Thursday, April 22. See www.cityofdavis.org for more information

2021 City of Davis Environmental Recognition Awards

Celebrating sustainability and quality of life in Davis

The Natural Resources Commission has recommended Environmental Recognition Awards to Davis City Council for over 25 years

Awards are presented in recognition of those who have made a significant difference in our community's overall sustainability goals and have improved Davis' environmental quality of life

Peregrine School, Non-Profit Organization

- Peregrine School demonstrates respect for the environment through curriculum and physical design and a commitment to community outreach
- Currently serving over 200 children toddler to 6th grade at two sites
- Peregrine School directly benefits community families beyond the walls of the school

Peregrine School—Accepting Award Lorie Hammond and Deb Bruns

Episcopal Church of St Martin, Non-Profit Organization

- St Martin's is an outstanding leader in environmental action
- Inspires the Davis community and improves the lives of the congregation
- Moving toward zero carbon emission for the entire campus including heating and water systems electrification, reducing waste, and encouraging active transportation.
- Sponsors invited environmental justice and climate action speakers

Episcopal Church of St Martin—Accepting Award Pamela Dolan and Stan Forbes

West Yost Associates, Business

- Founded and headquartered in Davis, West Yost helps City reach environmental goals, including safe and sustainable water, wastewater and drainage services
- Demonstrates a deep commitment to sustainability and stewardship values
- In honor of this award, West Yost selected Tree Davis as their 30th Anniversary April 2021 charitable organization recipient and will be planting a Commemorative Tree in the Davis Memorial Tree Grove

West Yost Associates—Accepting Award Charles Duncan

Dave Pelz, Individual Award being accepted by Jeff Pelz

- Dave Pelz was a Davis resident and served 27 years as Davis Public Works Director
- He provided vision, innovation and a steady hand in bringing new programs and policies to provide environmental hardship to fruition in the City of Davis
- He made many transportation reforms and set Davis as a model for California

Environmental Legacy Award

Village Homes

The Environmental Legacy Awards were initiated in 2017, the community's Centennial Year, to commemorate significant milestones in Davis's sustainability and environmental history

Village Homes, Environmental Legacy

- Village Homes, started in 1975 was far ahead of its time and is a model of residential design planning
- internationally recognized for its design sustainable design and ecologically beneficial features
- Village Homes was designed to encourage both a sense of community and energy/ natural resources conservation by principal developers Judy Corbett and Mike Corbett

Village Homes, Environmental Legacy Award being accepted by Judy Corbett

